Canada's Royal Winnipeg Ballet School's Concert Hour Ballet (CHB) is a tour performance company made up of senior level Professional Division students training for a career in classical ballet and dance. CHB begins with a lecture demonstration followed by a fully staged and costumed mixed repertoire performance, which includes classical ballet, modern dance and other excerpts from the RWB's repertoire. An informative study guide is available prior to CHB's arrival. The program is offered in English and French.

The Jorge Miguel Flamenco Ensemble was formed in 2002 to bring true Flamenco to audiences across Canada. The ensemble features “el toque” (guitar), “el baile” (dance), and “el cante” (singing). These three elements are the very soul of Flamenco and the ensemble features virtuosos of all three. Passionate, aggressive and percussive music, dance and song will take you on a journey to the heart of contemporary Flamenco. Ole!
